Why voters should choose you

I am a self-motivated, organized individual with a background in leadership. My strengths include networking, communication skills, and organization. I am well-versed in the mission and core values of the Academy and am prepared to lend those principles to decisions made while in this position. I understand the position and what it entails and am prepared to be challenged, develop new skills and gain valuable experience. This opportunity provides a chance to enhance my decision-making, communication and problem-solving abilities while staying active in the AAP. I would be honored to represent District III as the National Nominating Committee representative.
